

CAROLINA MORONES

Email: CarolinaM@osfashland.org Tel: (510) 510-3845

Carolina is passionate about sharing theatre as a vehicle for social change and is dedicated to creating a theatre that includes all communities.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

OREGON SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL In-Residence Company Member

ASHLAND, OR
July 2012 - April 2018

Resident Teaching Artist

- Teach workshops and lecture in English & Spanish
- Research, build and write curriculum
- Bilingual Specialist: editing, interpreting and developing curriculum for English Language Learners with a focus on first generation, newly arrived immigrants and migrant workers.

OSF Equity Diversity & Inclusion Facilitator

- Facilitate departmental and company-wide conversation

Actor (see Acting Resume)

Producer / Choreographer / Director

- Devised dance-theatre for OSF Greenshow stage, Daedalus Variety Show and various Community Production's events. Ritualistas, Samba Heart & Soul, Samba Dance Ashland.

FAIR: Assistantship 2012

IMD IMAGE & MODELING DEVELOPMENT Teaching Artist

MEDFORD, OR
Dec. 2015 - March 2018

- Course: Acting for the Camera
- Provide instruction and coaching for agency actors and models with a focus on advertising and TV/Film work.

KENT STATE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF THEATRE & DANCE Teaching Assistantship

KENT, OH
2009 - 2012

- Art of Acting: Introductory acting course for theatre majors with emphasis on ensemble building, overcoming nerves by freeing the body, voice and the imagination.
- Art of Theatre (in-class and online Blackboard course): Introductory level theatre course for non-theatre majors focused on the impact, significance, and historical relevance of the interconnection between culture and performance.
- Brazilian Dance (Adjunct Professor Kent State Dance Department)

MANZANITA COMMUNITY SCHOOLOAKLAND, CA*Arts Education Consultant & UNITY Program Manager*2008 – 2009

- Develop and manage after school programming with Parent Liaison
- Lead teacher of educational workshop that encourage teamwork and a positive self-image
- Work with the entire family on building community through storytelling

KAISER PERMANENTE EDUCATIONAL THEATRE PROGRAMSOAKLAND, CA*Performer Educator*2006 – 2009

- Actor/Singer in “Peace Signs” and “Zips Great Day”
- Engage students in post-show dialogues and workshops on issues such as bullying, literacy, peer pressure and domestic violence
- Participate in Family Night performances and community events.

EDUCATION

Great Michael Chekhov Consortium
Acting/Teaching Certification

Kent, OH
June 2013

Kent State University
M.F.A. in Acting

Kent, OH
May 2012

Santa Clara University
B.A. in Theatre & Performing Arts

Santa Clara, CA
June 2006

SKILLS

- Microsoft Office Suite: Word, Powerpoint, Excel, Outlook
- Fluent Spanish speaker, experience with interpretation and translation.
- Puppetry
- Tessitura

REFERENCES

Sharifa Johka: Director of Equity & Inclusion at the Oregon Shakespeare Festival
Phone: (310) 701-3399; Email: SharifaJ@osfashland.org

Kamilah Long: Associate Director of Leadership Alliances and Capital Campaigns
Phone: (334) 354-9300; Email: KamilahL@osfashland.org

Kirsten Giroux: Associate Director of Education and Curriculum Specialist
Phone: (541) 482-2111; Email: KirstenG@osfashland.org